

Best sorts of coffee will compete in hotel FIS on Štrbské pleso.

DEMANOVSKA DOLINA (24th May 2011) – Professional jury meets on Štrbské pleso this weekend to choose the winner among 12 brands of selected coffee in a blind test.

On Saturday, May 28, 2011 at 10:00 a.m. in hotel FIS on Štrbské pleso the representatives of the largest subjects in tourism will meet and create the so called tasting jury to choose coffee of the best aroma and taste in a blind test. The event is supported by the Union of hotels and restaurants of the Slovak Republic. The Union president Jozef Bendžala will not be missing in the jury.

Favourite drink of coffee beans will be prepared by professional baristas, Robert Trevisan, director of Barista Open and Stanislav Cibul'a, multiple master of the Slovak Republic and Barista Open winner. The patron and the professional controller of the test will be the renowned food technologist and the author of the book "Talking about coffee", Doc. PharmDr. Jozef Augustín, PhD.

This unique event is organized in hotel FIS, which has been a member of the portfolio of the company Tatry mountain resorts, a.s. since 2010, by its new director Michal Fajin, professional gastronomist and barista.

12 registered brands of blended coffee arabica and robusta will seek the favour of the jury. The unique opportunity to enjoy the best sorts of coffee in the world will be also open to public. The visitors of the hotel FIS can experience the professional service of award winning baristas as well as compare particular sorts of coffee for a symbolic price of 1 euro. More information about the event is available at <http://www.hotelfis.sk/sk/hotel/novinky/62-test-kavy>
