

The 4th year will also introduce new theatrical performances and a well-known bear programme. The main attraction of the weekend will be the performance of theatre TEATRO TATRO, where famous stars from the TV show named Partička are starring.

Every child, who brings a teddy bear along, gets a present. Discounts for transportation by ground cableway will be available up to 50%. The ground cableway from Starý Smokovec, also used by its Majesty, the British Queen Elisabeth II, will comfortably transport families with children to Hrebienok. It is possible to get to Hrebienok by foot, as well, but you cannot get scared by “mumbles”, which move there freely.

The little “bears” can dig through a container without punishment, where they find some goodies, they can stamp the bear’s foot or climb into the bear’s hole. They will learn much about the life of our biggest predator and about the Tatras’ nature in original theatrical performances.

Andrej Bičan, the traditional TV host of this unusual bear festival, is looking forward to meeting the children.

The bears will conquer the first Friday in August as well as the following weekend. The organizers decided to count the bears and reach the “bear” record.
