

The highest Christmas tree

ŠTRBSKÉ PLESO (21ST OF December 2011) – there will be the right Christmas markets this year already from the 24th of December as well on Strbske Pleso directly under the ski jumps. Not thanks to the length, but the altitude Strbske Pleso could be proud for the highest located Christmas tree. All visitors of the mountains can look forward for the right hot punch, live music and rich program in the altitude of 1400 m above the sea level.

The Christmas mood is everywhere all around us and it is not different in High Tatras. On one of the most beautiful tatras locations, at Strbske Pleso, the visitors and the locals are enjoying a perfect atmosphere of white Christmas.

The Christmas markets start precisely on Christmas Eve and the spirit of the Christmas at Strbske Pleso will stay there until the 9th of January thanks to these markets. Scenic wooden stalls will offer everything what can never miss at the Christmas markets – delicious hot wine, sweet punch, grog, grilled sausage, greasy pancakes.....

There is prepared also ecumenical divine service on the Christmas Eve, which will take place in the evening directly in the open air amphitheater in the ski resort.

The mayor of Strba, Michal Sykora will solemnly baptize the snowflake in the resort Vysoke Tatry – Strbske Pleso on Tuesday the 27th of December. The attractive promise of the ski instructors will be also not missing and folk symposium and folk band will take care about entertainment during the whole day.

Skiers and non-skiers will be able to enjoy the meal from roasted ox, which will be on the fire during the morning on the last day of year 2011. The welcome of New Year 2012 will be in connection with attractive firework, midnight toast and dancing on the snow.

„Štrbské Pleso is beautiful place of High Tatras. Therefore we would like to make the stay on this place more beautiful for all visitors and also the locals. I am very pleased, that the ski resort, hotels and services providers decided to participate on this Christmas event at Strbske Pleso. I wish you all Happy Christmas and a Happy New Year.,“ wished Michal Sykora, mayor of Strba.
