

Kids from kindergarten will unpack their Christmas gift

DEMÄNOVSKÁ DOLINA (19th of December 2011) – Small kids from kindergarten in Ondrasova will unpack their Christmas gift from the resort Jasna Nizke Tatry already on Saturday the 21st of December 2011. Children will learn the skiing basics from the professional instructors and will have also fun on the snow. They will get this all from the ski school TATRY MOTION as a pre-Christmas gift.

We have the Christmas holiday here in few days and at this occasion the idea to prepare Christmas surprise for the children and teach them the skiing basics while having fun raised up in Jasna. The luck to open the gift before Christmas got the children from kindergarten in Ondrasova, district of Liptovský Mikuláš.

Professional ski school TATRY MOTION had taught skiing only in Jasna more than 3000 children in the last winter season. The lessons are operating by a very attractive way. The kids will be delighted already when looking at Maxiland at Biela Put, this largest kid's winter area in Slovakia on an area of more than 6000 m² with convenient belt lift is an ideal place for the first skiing or snowboard experiences. There is waiting an animation program named Little Red Riding Hood with a wolf on the skies and they will have fun with Maxiland dance as well. Parents can entrust their children into the hands of experienced ski instructors and they can easily enjoy the skiing on the slopes or the time in a complex center of services at Biela Put, visit sport shop, ski rental, info center, have something in Après ski bar or just watch their children from the Happy End terrace. When the small skiers are skilled enough than the resort is offering them almost 12 km of blue, light artificially snowed up slopes. .

23 kids in pre-school age will unpack their Christmas surprise in Jasna and they are all already looking forward for their ski premiere....
