

The winter season began literally starry

DEMÄNOVSKÁ DOLINA (5th of December 2011) – The ski season has finally begun. Even there is only artificial snow on the slopes the entertainment is really great. Business man and multi father Boris Kollar, Wimbledon winner Petra Kvitova or moderator Matej Sajfa Cifra had the change to assure about this personally in Jasna last weekend. The attention of skiers and good music lovers will be moved to High Tatras in few days, there will be MUSIC WINTER OPENING taking place. The biggest music event on Slovak slopes will take place in Tatranska Lomnica. There will be playing different kind of music style on each cable car station. Jaro Slavik, the member of talent show jury will also attend on this event as he could not miss such and original musical event.

The ski season started at once in whole Tatras on Friday the 2nd of December 2011.

Even there is not so much snow on the slopes as in January; the people from Tatras have not lost their taste. After the successful event in Jasna last Saturday, all attention is now focused on the biggest music event on Slovak slopes, MUSIC WINTER OPENING Tatranská Lomnica.

On Saturday the 10th of December 2011, Tatranska Lomnica will be not only the skiing center under the second highest peak of High Tatras, but also a big music stage. There will be playing different music style on each cable car station from Tatranska Lomnica up to Skalnaté Pleso.

The visitors of High Tatras will be able to enjoy entertainment with the stars like Horkýže slíže, Wadda or Six and Kristy. There will be taking place also HIP-HOP ratak battle, battle in mixing the music and showman Mr. King Pepo will also act.

Skiers and non-skiers can look forward to watch great Mania Show, original visual style associated with music production, where the ears and eyes can enjoy the pleasure thanks to mixing audio through the large screen picture 8m2. They will try to show tatras slopes to the visitors not traditionally, that they have talent for good skiing and original music as well.

And those who will have not enough skiing through music styles can find abattoir specialties in the music club Humno and where a great Oldies Winter Party will be taking place in the evening.
