

Happy Easter skiing

TATRAS (25th March 2013) – Ski resorts in the Low and High Tatras have prepared a rich programme for Easter. The winter in the Tatras hasn't finished yet, snow conditions in both resorts are still very good, the ski slopes have from 80 to 115 cm of snow cover. Don't forget to pack your summer equipment too as you can get a suntan under the Tatras in all comfort – on a deckchair in a tropical world of the aquapark Tatalandia.

There will be a LIVE concert of the POLEMIC band at the resort Jasná Low Tatras on 29th March 2013 – in the popular music club Happy End. On Saturday 30th March, you can enjoy a real pig-slaughtering feast with a rich animation programme. There will be a delicious goulash and real pig-slaughtering specialities smelling across the whole resort of Jasná, accompanied by background folk music. And a live Tatran resident from a popular TV spot will come too. A traditional pouring with water and whipping can't be missing at our largest ski resort of course. Local artists will show their skills of whip plaiting, basket weaving and other Easter decorations. There will be a rich programme prepared for kids at the Wellness Hotel Grand Jasná, with mascots Maco, Keksík and Chrumka. Kids can try decorating Easter eggs or finding a real Easter treasure. Skiers who decide to spend the holiday in the Low Tatras can head for the Jasná resort or the Tropical Paradise at Tatalandia, with guaranteed 30 degrees in all weathers. Blooming banana plants will experience their first Easter picking. The banana picking under Mt. Chopok is planned from 29. 3. to 1. 4. 2013 with aquapark mascots Taja and Tary taking part too.

The summer begins at Tatalandia at Easter already. The picking of tropical bananas is an original event that will please all age categories. There will be competitions for kids in banana seeking, eating or hunting under water, an animation programme Aquagym a la Juanita Banana, a Banana relay, a Banana dance, snorkelling with Tarzan, a Chiquita mini disco or Banana games on a Spanish galleon. On Easter Monday, all visitors to the Tropical Paradise can enjoy a traditional Banana whipping and pouring in salt water. If we have warm weather, the celebration in the heart of the Tatras will start the toboggan season in the aquapark area.

There is a lot of fun on skis prepared for Easter Sunday 31st March 2013 at the resort of the High Tatras - Štrbské Pleso. A cheerful carnival in masks on the slope will be a real celebration of Easter and the coming of spring. Ski instructors will present their one and only SKI SHOW. The event will be hosted by the popular actor Matej Landl and accompanied by music performances of bands Energy, Lajblik, or the singer Peter Stašák. All who come dressed up in a carnival costume will get a free ski pass for the whole day. Skiers in masks competing in a race can win great prizes. There will also be a tombola game and various grilled specialities in front of the FIS Hotel prepared for the visitors.
